

Once upon a time, there was

a poor

shoe maker

and his wife.

The shoe maker

had

no

material.

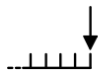

The shoe maker

prepared

to make the

last

shoes,

then

went to bed.

The next

morning,

the shoe maker

found

perfect

shoes.

The shoe maker

did not know

who

made

them.

The shoe maker

sold

the shoes

for

lots of money.

The shoe maker

waited

to see

made

the shoes.

Two

elves

appeared.

The shoe maker

made

the elves

new clothes

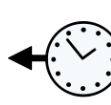

to say

thank you.

The shoe maker

was

rich.
